

ADDITIONAL RISK DISCLOSURE

Sign below, if any of the following 5 statements apply to you:

- 1) Retired, or
- 2) Have an annual income of less than $25,000 annually, or
- 3) Have a net worth of less than $50,000.00, or
- 4) Have no prior experience trading commodity futures or options
- 5) Under 23 years of age, or over 69 years of age

In addition to the risk disclosures provided in our Customer Account Agreement as required under industry regulations, it is important that you understand that in trading commodity futures and/or options on futures, you could sustain a total loss of all of the funds in your account, as well as, additional amounts of capital deposited by you, which may have been required as margin for the positions in your account. In some cases the losses in your account could exceed the amount of funds contained in your account, resulting in debit balances for which you will be responsible.

You also realize that limited risk in buying options means that you could lose the entire option investment should the position expire worthless. You should also be aware that exercise of an option contract will result in a futures position. Additionally, selling an option could result in unlimited losses.

If you wish to open your account with Cadent, please sign below acknowledging that you have committed only risk capital and that loss of these funds will not jeopardize your style of living nor detract from your future retirement program.
